Introduction

Like prior months, the COVID-19 pandemic continues to direct all decisions in the drum corps activity. The scholarship fund received no additional applications and disbursed no funds for students during December. The board chair has been in contact with all sponsored students from the 2020 season as we prepare for the 2021 season.

On December 3rd, 2020, Drum Corps International announced plans for events at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis, IN from August 12 – 14 with notes that subcommittee meetings, research, and discussions were ongoing for the annual meeting scheduled in January 2021. With the announcement of virtual programs, planned events in Indianapolis, and pending updates from DCl's January meeting, the board opened scholarship applications for the 2021 season to support Michigan students.

Of our 2020 sponsored programs with prepaid scholarships rolled into 2021, three ensembles have developed platforms for virtual instruction and audition camps. Phantom Regiment created the Phantom Regiment Academy for virtual drum major and leadership clinics as well as a new Expert Lesson Series designed for beginner band students. The Crossmen announced The Collective as their digital platform for video auditions, monthly classes, and private instruction sessions. River City Rhythm continues to host their RCR Winter Experience and Distant Harmonies programs for virtual instruction and performance opportunities. Legends has not announced a virtual learning program and no ensembles have announced any in-person activities to date. The board continues to monitor the state of the marching arts and will provide updates to all interested parties as more information becomes available.
